

7th graders will be required to read the book “Greenglass House,” by Kate Milford, fill in the template below and then type a report using the template that is attached. Students will then be required to take an AR Test on the book when they return to school. The book is relatively long, so I suggest getting a head start and reading it early.

The title of the book is, “Greenglass House” by Kate Milford. It can be found on Amazon.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or concerns. I can easily be accessed through email this summer.

Thank you,
